President Hollis Godfrey,

Drexel Institute,

Philadelphia, Pa.

My dear Godfrey:

Passing through Toronto on my way to England I find a note stating that I have been made an honorary member of the University Club of Washington. I know that I owe this to you. Please accept my thanks. I sail from New York on the 21st and do not expect to be back until towards the end of September.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

President Hollis Godfrey,
Drexel Institute,
Philadelphia.

Dear Dr. Godfrey:

Many thanks for the March issue of the "Review of Reviews" with your article in it. I have read it with much interest. I believe with you that if you can secure highly educated leaders that will be one of the ways out of our difficulty, and you with your great experience in vocational affairs should be able to give excellent guidance in the matter of training offered.

With kind regards to Mrs. Godfrey from my wife and myself, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
